Probabilities indicate fine weather for the first day of the New Year.

THE COURTS.—Circuit Court—Judge Melvin. This Court met yesterday morning, but adjourned over to to-day without transacting any business of importance.

County Court.—Judge Cochran. Court met at 9 A. M., and transacted the following business:

The case of Samuel Hicks vs. Geo. Forbes, in assumption, was tried to Court and taken under advisement. Good for plaintiff, and Forbes for defendant.

The estate of Thos. Clark, deceased, was committed to the care of the Sheriff of Ohio county.

The case of Isaac Cox vs. W. F. Beck in ejectment, was put upon its second trial before a jury. The jury is composed of the following gentlemen: W. F. Lindsey, Jas. A. Bodley, A. P. Hancher, W. B. Boring, G. S. Stoker, T. H. Reed, N. F. McNaughton, Sam Patterson, James Hanes, W. H. Exley, A. M. Phillips. The evidence was partly heard when Court adjourned to this morning.

Municipal Court.—Judge Crammer. The Municipal Court met yesterday afternoon, and disposed of the following business:

In the case of August Weidenschel vs. Anton Goke, a motion for a new trial was argued and submitted.

In the case of the City of Wheeling vs. Thos. Shallerons, special pleas were filed and argued and a general replication entered by the plaintiff. The case was continued until to-day.

A jury was ordered in the case of J. Bahny & Co. vs. Nail City Insurance Company. Adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock.

Police Court.—Judge Crammer. Six cases made a rather healthy docket in this court yesterday morning. They were examined and disposed of as follows:

John Koch was in charge of Officer Bogard. For creating a disturbance in North Wheeling John was fined $5 and costs.

Louis Sauvageot, arrested by Officer Jenkins for disorderly conduct, was fined $5 and costs.

Officer Baum had four cases, all from the Eighth Ward, viz:

Geo. Hooth, disorderly conduct, $5 and costs.

Carl Klager, assault and battery on Geo. Hooth, $5 and costs.

Fritz Mackling and Henry Brackler, disorderly conduct, $10 and costs each.

PERSONAL.—Rev. John Todd, of Preston county, registered at the Grant House yesterday.

Capt. Will List, of the steamer Hudson, arrived in town yesterday. His boat will be up on Friday night.

Mr. E. Wilson, a former resident of Bellaire, and well known in Belmont county, is now and has been for some time connected with the Pittsburgh Leader. He some years ago contributed some very readable articles to the Belmont county papers over the signature of "Jasper."

CHRISTMAS TESTIMONIAL.—The Misses Daddridge, at their rooms in the Weissel Institute, were the recipients of a very handsome Christmas testimonial, in the shape of an elegant silver fruit stand and a pair of silver butter knives. The presentation was made by the ladies of the music class which has been under the instruction of the Misses Daddridge for some months past, as mark of their appreciation of the assiduous devotion which characterizes the efforts of those lady teachers to impart thorough instruction to those under their professional care. As a token of affection and regard, we have no doubt the Christmas present was very gratifying and will be properly appreciated by the recipients.

JUSTICE KAMMER.—Carl Klager yesterday entered an information before Justice Kammer against George Hooth, complainant's step-father, whom he charged with a disturbance of the peace. Klager alleges that Hooth is in the habit of coming home intoxicated and abusing his family. Hooth was required to furnish bond in the sum of $100 to be of good behavior for the period of one year, and was released upon his own recognizance. The parties reside in the Eighth Ward.

HIGH WATER.—The river rose rapidly yesterday, and last night there were about twenty-eight feet of water in the channel. The lower banks of the Island are inundated, but as the river is reported falling at Pittsburgh, those of our citizens who are exposed to the water need not be alarmed. Old river men say that we will not have more than twenty-nine or thirty feet here.

PRETTY GOOD.—At an examination in one of our public schools yesterday a youngster was asked to name the different forms of government. "Democracy and Hypocrisy," was the reply. "Under what form of government do we live?" asked the teacher. The boy hesitated a moment, and then answered "Hypocrisy." That boy ought to pass.

JOHN GILLESPIE.—Geo. Bauerley and John Koch were before Justice Gillespie yesterday, charged with disturbing the peace in North Wheeling. In the former case, information was entered by Lena Koch, and in the latter by Geo. Bauerley. The defendants were each held in $100 to be of good behavior for the period of one year.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—At a meeting of Ivanhoe Lodge No. 14, K. of P., held last evening, the following officers were elected:

C. C. Wm. E. Fry, C. C. A. M. Harkins, V. C. G. G. McKow, Prelate, O. K. J. Ellis, K. of P. and Seals, Wm. Winder, M. of E. F. Britt, Trustees, Geo. Kingham, Carter Smith and F. A. Britt.

THE "OLDEST INHABITANT" is yet alive! It would be interesting to hear him tell a few bits about how he experienced just such December weather as we have had lately some year so remotely past that nobody lives to be able to authoritatively contradict him.

A BASKET will be found ready at this office to-morrow and the day after, to receive the thumbs and fingers sacrificed to shooting in the New Year. There is no unwelcome such things.

BRIDGEPORT ITEMS.—Council met on Monday night.

Country people through our streets during the holidays.

Enterprising storekeepers keep the country clear.

Why does not one of our Councilmen immortalize his name by introducing the street lamp bill?

"He does not advertise," was the remark of a country gentleman the other day as he replaced his well filled wallet in his pocket and turned from a merchant's door.

"Cutting a caper," is the way the Bridgeport boys have it for a plain drunk.

One of the employees of the Kana Mill concluded (as the mill was idle) to run a heat on his own hook. Accordingly he charged himself with benzine and started. When he had become sufficiently hot, Officer James McDonough ran him through the rolls into Squire Crook's office. After he had cooled, and was weighed in the justice balance, it was found that the net proceeds of the heat were a trifling over $12.

Warrants were issued Monday for the arrest of the three young gentlemen who created the disturbance at the Belmont House Christmas eve. One of them, like Mother Hubbard's geese, one flew east and one flew west, and one didn't fly, but paid $5 to the town treasury. Subsequently one of the others returned, like the prodigal, and threw himself upon the mercy of Father Crooks. The other one is still on the wing.

"A January and May" marriage was celebrated here last week.

A Bridgeport married lady says polygamy may be a horrible thing, but she is willing to share the affections, etc., of her husband, with any woman who will take her turn building fires in the morning.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Barley (the lady who was thrown from a buggy Christmas day) was not as seriously injured as at first reported, her arm being broken in but one place, instead of three.

We are requested to tender the thanks of a number of the citizens of Kirkwood to Mayor McDonough for his gratuitous distribution of ashes along the side walks, thereby rendering them passable.

A street car leaves Bridgeport every 15 minutes.

There has not been a fire in Bridgeport, for three years.

Tenement houses are in great demand. Our merchants are all doing a fair business.

It requires 16 horses to transfer the freight from the C. & P. depot to Wheeling.

Father Hudson will lecture in the M. E. Church, New Year's night; subject, "Fifty years of Methodism."

The employees at Woodcock & Ross' foundry have gone to work at 20 per cent reduction.

Bridgeport is a good grain market. Both mills are running constantly—their flour sells itself.

Look out for this week's Chronicle. Dr. Todd's got his pencil sharpened.

Old Broam smashed his thumb the other day while heading a barrel. Don't forget your Sunday School lessons. Clem.

It is now proposed to tunnel the hill to McMahon's creek, for an outlet for the Kirkwood run. Council, please N. B. JEWKINS.

DELLAIRE ITEMS.—The sessions of the Teachers Institute, now being held at Bellaire, have been in all ways successful. Notwithstanding the rain of Monday very little time was lost, and the announced programme has been adhered to and so far carried out, the work all being interesting and instructive. Something more than fifty teachers are in attendance. Mr. Mendonhall, of Columbus whose lectures on Physics and Mathematical Geography have been especially entertaining and useful, lectured last night on Sound. The lecture was well attended, and many speak appreciatively, not only of his form, but of his delivery, and also of the lecture on Sound delivered last night.

The Council did a big business Tuesday night. A committee of that august body was appointed to examine the condition of the smoke stack on Ault's mill. A committee appointed to examine the condition of the Cemetery road reported unfavorably.

A petition asking the privilege of re-laying the pavement near the German Church, was granted.

While Mr. Henry Meek was repairing a gas pipe yesterday, the gas was inhaled by him and immediately rendered him insensible. Prompt medical assistance was given him and he is much better at present writing.

"Old Spiv," comes down to see us occasionally now. He has an interest here now. How many we don't know.

No locals in the Bellaire column of the Register yesterday. We thought this would occur. Prof. Lee is off on a holiday. He takes his most any time.

The police force lamenteth. Nothing done in their line yesterday.

A minstrel entertainment was given by the A. M. E. denomination Tuesday night, gotten up expressly for the benefit of one of the members. It was a success.

The little daughter of Richard Murphy, burned to death accidentally Tuesday afternoon, was buried in the Catholic cemetery. Our sympathy is with the bereaved parents.

The weather was very cold yesterday, exceedingly so, and now you can hear a wagon rattling along our streets a half mile distant, the mud being frozen so hard.

Durst wants everybody to know that he will have on hand a car load of all kinds of oysters for New Year's.

The public, one and all are requested to call at the grocery of Gill & Walker, to examine their prices, and note the reduction of prices for as they shall hereafter sell for, they will sell groceries cheaper than any firm in the city. Don't lose an opportunity of doing yourselves good and saving money. They have on hand a large quantity of shell oysters.

THE MINSTRELS. The Opera House contained a rather small audience last evening. The company appeared to advantage, however, although the programme was the same as presented on the previous evening. To-night Robinson shows in Bellaire, and Robert McWade will personate "Rip Van Winkle" in the Opera House.

DIVERSIDE IRON WORKS.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Riverside Iron Works, held last evening, the following persons were elected Directors for the coming year: J. Nelson Vance, Channoy Dewey, Wm. S. Hearn, John D. Colbertson, Frank J. Hearn, N. Wilkinson.

NEWBOYS AND BOOKSELLERS.—We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to be present at the Sixteenth Annual Dinner given by John W. Pittcock, of the Pittsburgh Leader, to the newboys and bookbacks of that city on New Year's day.

NEW YEAR'S AT THE POST OFFICE.—The usual Sunday hours will be observed at the Post Office on New Year's Day. The carriers will make one delivery, and that will be in the morning. There will be a collection for the mails closing at 10 A. M.

A LARGE class of ladies and gentlemen in book-keeping will enter Martin & Frazer's Business College in Mozart Hall, McLean's block, 1st of January.

Go to the National Business College for a thorough Commercial education.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.—This benevolent institution, sustained by the charity of the people alone, is the only institution of the kind in the State, and is worthy the support and sympathy of every individual, who has it in his power to give.

Although the practicability of providing a home for neglected and orphan children in this city had been discussed for a number of years, no practical steps were taken toward that end until the spring of 1870. During the months of February and March public and private meetings were held, responsible parties went security for the rent of a suitable building, and on the first of April a building on the corner of 17th and Market streets, was open for the reception of orphans and other young waifs on the sea of life. A few days after two children were received and the work had begun.

During the first year 38 children were admitted, and about the same number in the second year. During this time the Home had a gloomy prospect, being at one time over one thousand dollars in debt. By dint of great perseverance this was paid and Messrs. D. C. List, J. L. Hobbs, W. B. Simpson, H. K. List, J. L. Hobbs, S. Laughlin, A. G. Robinson, R. Gibson, J. N. Vance, M. S. Hearn, S. H. Woodward, S. McCallister, C. Orndy and L. S. Delaplaine subscribed ten thousand dollars to purchase a permanent home. This was done on May 21, 1873, the little ones were transferred to what might in truth be termed a home.

At the present time there are 37 children at the institute, and under the motherly attention of the matron and her assistants, they receive all the care, instructions and kindness they could receive, and are under the control of Christian parents. Neatness, cleanliness and order prevail, and early moral and christian teachings are impressed upon their minds at all times.

During the month of December the donations were unusually liberal everything that could add to the comfort, as well as the pleasure of the little ones was provided. The watchful care of many mothers, the happiness of her own little children, is vividly expressed in the gifts contributed. We refrain from mentioning the names of donors, but to those who have not donated, we simply say "go and do likewise."

The applications for the admission of children during the last two months have been double the number the financial condition of the Home would admit, and urgent appeals are made to remedy this difficulty, but as yet with very little success. It is well to note the "Home" is entirely unsectarian, and can exist only through the charity of the whole people. The children are as soon as practicable furnished homes, but with those only who will bring them up good and useful members of society. We append a partial list of the officers.

President.—W. B. Simpson.
Vice-President.—J. C. List.
Secretary.—L. C. Stifel.
Treasurer.—Mrs. G. Lamb.
Board of Directors.—W. B. Simpson, S. B. Barlett, H. Wallace, S. Brady, W. Hughes, L. C. Stifel, Mrs. S. R. Dickey.
Physicians.—Drs. Bates, Jr., J. Prisel and John C. Hupp.
Attorneys.—Davenport & Davenport, C. W. B. Allison, S. O. Taylor and Daniel Lamb.
Matron.—Mrs. D. M. Boyd.
Seamstress.—Mrs. McDonnell.

In addition to these the Home is governed by a corps of twenty-six lady managers, whose deliberations are presided over by a President, Vice President, Recording and Corresponding Secretaries.

Since May, 1870, eighty-eight children have been provided homes, mainly among wealthy families, and some few have been reclaimed by their parents. One little fellow who was sent out in Ohio, saved his odd pennies and extra earnings, with which he purchased a much needed washing machine and sent it to the Matron in the Fall of 1873. The bedding, bedsteads, coats, and furniture for all the rooms have been furnished principally by the churches of the city, and are neat, comfortable and serviceable. The arrangement of bath rooms, sleeping apartments and school room, is everything that could be desired.

An effort is being made to collect by subscription a sum of thirty thousand dollars to be placed on deposit or invested, the interest to be used for the support of the institution. Several wealthy gentlemen promise to advance from $500 to $1,000 each, should the subscription prosper. There is every reason to believe it will eventually succeed.

The Lady Managers held their meetings on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. The Board of Directors meet quarterly.

To Mr. Barlett and four or five other gentlemen belong the honor of first starting this institution, and too much credit cannot be given the benevolent ladies who have done so much towards its success. The English Lutheran Sunday School Mission had, with the assistance of Christians of other denominations, begun supporting orphans at Zellenople, Lodyville and Rochester, Penna., and it was concluded to try the experiment at home. It is gratifying that the originators have been so successful, and it is to be hoped so deserving a charity may always meet with public favor.

There were more space between New Year's and the first of January, people who have quarterly bills to pay might enjoy the inauguration of 1875 with a greater freedom from care.

The week of prayer for the conversion of the world commences next Monday, and young fellows who propose turning their new year on New Year's day should take advantage of the occasion.

Our society young men, who have for some time been in a state of mental agitation as to the style of card they will use for New Year calls, probably experience a feeling of relief now.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup should be kept in every family. A slight cough, if unchecked, is often the forerunner of Consumption, and a timely dose of this wonderful medicine has rescued many from an early grave.

L. V. Blond's is the only place in the city where you can purchase a pair of box-toed buttoned gaiters.

MARTIN'S RESTAURANT.—This deserving institution continues to increase in popularity. A more hospitable Benedict cannot be found than Martin. All who patronize him unite in saying that he "knows how to keep a hotel." He is constantly introducing something new in the culinary art, something that always tickles the palates of his most fastidious customers. He serves the best of meals, promptly, at all hours, day or night, at 1155 Market street, opposite the city building. Call upon him when you are hungry.

I have your favor of 17th, making inquiries about the Blower you made for me. I have to say that it is first-class in every respect, and has given entire satisfaction. I consider it the best Blower I ever used. Our Agitator is 14 feet diameter, 25 feet deep. The Blower is large for it and would just as easily treat 800 to 1,000 bbls Oil as it now does 500.
